Vision to Victory 2024

Theme: Faith Works Through Peacemaking

OPENING SONG:

Guest musician Mr. Eric Melton

Worship Leader: Ms. Oyen Abanda

Welcome to the final week of our Faith Works series, where we focus on the power of prayer. Today, we reflect on how our faith is expressed through prayer—how prayer connects us to God and to one another, bringing healing, hope, and strength. Let us begin our worship by committing ourselves to a life of prayer.

Please stand for our call to worship

CALL TO WORSHIP: (Ask Congregants to Stand if Able)

Leader: As we gather, may we trust in the power of prayer.

Congregation: We come to seek God's healing and hope through prayer.

Leader: May our prayers be filled with faith, hope, and love.

Congregation: We commit to praying for one another and our world.

Leader: Let us worship the God who hears our prayers.

Congregation: We come to praise the One who heals and restores.

As we sing this next song, let it be a prayer from our hearts, inviting God's healing and hope into our lives and the lives of those we lift up in prayer.

*SONG OF WORSHIP

As we lift our voices in song, let us also lift our hearts in prayer, trusting in God's presence and power.

MORNING PRAYER | INVOCATION:

(Lay Leader – Not In Unison)

Ms. Abanda

Healing God, we come before You in prayer, trusting in Your power to heal and restore. May our worship today be a reflection of our faith in Your ability to transform our lives and our world. Amen.

WELCOME AND RECOGNITION OF GUESTS

Ms. Abanda

Good morning, again! I greet you in the blessed name of our LORD. It is a joy to see everyone in worship with us today in person and virtually! For those joining us for the first time, we're honored to have you. If this is your second or even the third time, it is a blessing to have you back with us, and we trust that you all will feel the warmth and love of Christ in this place. We want to take a moment as a church community to welcome and acknowledge one another with a wave and smile. Roseville, please wave and smile at your neighbor, right where you are! And to our online community, we acknowledge you as well! Kindly drop a greeting in the comments to let us know you're with us. For our in-person worshippers, there's a guest connection card [show card]. It's a way for you to share any prayer requests, express interest in joining a ministry, or start a conversation with the pastor. Please fill it out and place it in the offering plate later. If you're joining us online and feel moved to connect further, simply type, "I want to connect," and we will be in touch. May God's blessings be upon each one of you. Let us continue our worship in song and spirit!

OFFERING

Call for Offering

Ms. Abanda

As we give today, let us do so as an expression of our faith in God's ability to use these gifts to bring healing and hope to those in need.

OFFERTORY SELECTION

Doxology: "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow...."*

Prayer of Dedication

God of healing and hope, use these gifts to bring Your transformative power to our world. May they be a blessing to those who receive them, as we seek to live out our faith through prayer and action. Amen.

Ms. Abanda

As we prepare to hear the Word of God, let us open our hearts to the message of James, who teaches us about the transformative power of prayer. May this scripture encourage us to make prayer an integral part of our faith journey.

SCRIPTURE READING: James 5:13-20

Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest. My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another, you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

After this next selection we will have our message from Rev. Marshall.
